

How Would I feel feat Jean Baylor

Often she wrote before she went to sleep
And I would think about the secrets that she keep
Then one night I saw it resting there
I tried to ignore it but I was well aware
Inside it was stories, ones I didn't know
Ones she never told me, ones I had to know
Would she write about another, some guy at her job
That became her lover, God I need to stop

Chorus

How would I feel, how would I feel
If she was going through my emails
Searching through my phone
How would I feel, how would I feel
If she was going through my pockets
When she was home alone

Ok I will take a look, guess this page will do
I will just read one page, maybe two
Half an hour later and I cannot put it down
My insecurities won't stop 'til bad news is found
Not like she has done things to make me feel this way
But would she write inside this book if everything was okay
I know that her ex comes from time to time
And her deep dark confessions are written in these lines

Chorus

How would I feel, how would I feel
If she was going through my emails
Searching through my phone
How would I feel, how would I feel
If she was going through my pockets
When she was home alone

Reached the last page, all I found was this
A poem called "I love my babies kiss"
I put the book down, sat right there and thought
She does not even know but I feel just like I'm caught
84 pages she mostly wrote 'bout me
And complaints about my snoring was the worst that I see

Chorus

How would I feel, how would I feel
If she was going through my emails
Searching through my phone
How would I feel, how would I feel
If she was going through my pockets
When she was home alone

I need to know, how would it feel
How would it feel
Why don't you trust me? I thought I knew you
What did I ever do to make you feel so insecure?
Now you've got me wondering, can I trust you
If you don't believe
How should I feel, how should I feel
How should I
If you don't believe
You don't believe a word
