

Mr. Nice Guy

Chorus

Mister Nice Guy yeah, last to be thought about
First one she turning down
Guess I'm the odd man out
Mister Nice Guy tired of coming in last
Maybe I'll be better off just chasing the ey, ey, ey
(repeat)

1st Verse

Well I took this chick that was lovely out for lobster and bubbly
I thought I was all in
I thought this girl was thinking of me but when we out for dinner
She brought all of her friends
Wow, now everyone's playing dumb like when the bill comes
They be all like "ummmm"
I'm out here looking for a real deal, while these chicks right there
Looking for a free meal

Chorus

Mister Nice Guy yeah, last to be thought about
First one she turning down
Guess I'm the odd man out
Mister Nice Guy tired of coming in last
Maybe I'll be better off just chasing the ey, ey, ey
(repeat)

2nd Verse

I really want you to be wifey
Cause this Mister Nice Guy just seems so broken hearted
I can be Bill Cosby you Phylicia Rashad, yeah
But she prefer Ike and Tina, I mean last dude I seen you with Come one he's a dog
Man, am I just too old fashion I'm talking 'bout passion, love everlasting,
I'm asking
If I was a jerk would I be rewarded

Chorus

Mister Nice Guy yeah, last to be thought about
First one she turning down
Guess I'm the odd man out
Mister Nice Guy tired of coming in last
Maybe I'll be better off just chasing the ey, ey, ey
(repeat)

Bridge

Maybe I shouldn't listen, maybe not pay attention
Not look her in the eye when she's speaking her mind
Not remember my temper, or never compliment her
Or never call her back and be late all the time
Naw I need to just keep on looking
A nice girl is hard to find (so hard to find)
But when I find her love I sure will give her mines

Mister Nice Guy yeah last to be thought about
First one she turning down
